Milo Hamilton (Contributor)

Milo is from Fairfield, Iowa. He graduated from Fairfield in 1945. He made his first radio broadcast on the Armed Forces Radio while serving in the Navy at the age of 18 during WWII. He graduated from the University of Iowa in 1949. He called football and basketball games for the Hawkeyes, as well as minor league baseball games in the Quad Cities region and the Tri-City Blackhawks of the NBA (now the Atlanta Hawks). He received his first MLB announcing job in 1953 with the St. Louis Browns of the American League. When the Browns moved to Baltimore as the Orioles, Hamilton didn't go. Instead, he moved to the St. Louis Cardinals where he worked alongside Harry Caray and Jack Buck during the 1954 season. Milo was fired only after one year to make room in the booth for Joe Garagiola. Milo moved to Chicago with the Cubs and worked alongside Jack Brickhouse and Vince Lloyd. Again, Milo was pushed out after three years to make room for Lou Boudreau. After taking three years off, Milo joined the White Sox. He worked with long time announcer Bob Elson. Hamilton left Chicago for Atlanta in 1966. While in Atlanta, Milo called Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th career home run in 1974 home opener. Milo joined the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1976 after friction in Atlanta the season before. Unhappy in Pittsburgh, he returned to the Cubs in 1980. He had a great working relationship with Jack Brickhouse, Vince Lloyd, and Lou Boudreau. Harry Caray came on board in 1982 after his problems with the White Sox. Milo and Harry never got along. This friction with Caray caused the firing of Hamilton in 1984. Milo made his last broadcasting stop in Houston with the Astros. He became the one announcer for the Astros in 1986 until his retirement. Milo has been honored with many awards and recognition. In 1992, he was the recipient of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Ford C. Frick Award. He was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame and into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame. Hamilton has called 11 no-hitters, and he was at the microphone for Roger Maris' 61st homer in 1961. Lee mentioned that the showcase was an overwhelming success both from a financial and participation standpoint. Next year’s series is scheduled for Council Bluffs. Lee presented an update on this year’s clinic to be held at the Marriott in Cedar Rapids. He noted that the 2011 and 2012 clinics are to be held in Cedar Rapids. A discussion followed regarding moving the clinic to another location for a year trial - (Des Moines). After much discussion, the consensus was to have Lee investigate venues in Des Moines for the year 2013 and report back to the board in the next year as to the possibilities and cost factors of moving the clinic to another location. Lee presented to the board the possibility of moving the clinic up a week due to the fact that the college baseball season is starting at different time now. Lee thought that this would enhance our chances to obtain more quality college coaches, after much discussion the board agreed this was a good ideal and that we should try to implement this for the 2012 clinic. Lee recommended Dave and Kendra Rock for the Contributor Award, Jack Roeder of the Cedar Rapids Kernels for the President’s Award and Milo Hamilton for the “Pinky” Primrose Award. Jay Ryan motioned to approve the report, Chris Oberbroeckling seconded. Report was approved.

The awards committee report was given by Phil Katz. Phil mentioned that he continues to work on a new design for the Hall of Fame Award. Dave Middleton gave the Membership Committee Report. In class 4-A, 100% of the schools were members. In 3-A, a 92% membership rating (59/64 schools). In 2-A, a 79% membership rating and in 1-A a 60% membership rating. Total Membership was at 79% (285/361 schools). Dave gave the board a hand out listing every school that was not a member. Charlie Stumpff commented how amazing this was that 80% of the schools were members. Mike Pauley motioned to accept this report and Gary Paulson seconded, motion was accepted.

Steve Hanson gave the Clinic Survey/ Mini Clinic Report. Steve brought up that the mini clinics were a little rushed for time last year and that they would be slightly longer this year. There was a short discussion on the clinic evaluation forms and how to tweak these forms. One idea was to have the person who introduces the speaker(s), remind the session to fill out the evaluation forms. Steve mentioned that one of this year's mini clinics would be focused on how to properly score a game. The intent of this session would be to improve the quick stats data in a way that would make it more "Accurate". Roger Barr has agreed to moderate this session. Paul Keitel motioned to accept this report, seconded by Roger Hoel, motion approved.

Steve Hanson gave the IHSAA Advisory Committee Report. Steve indicated that there was a healthy discussion regarding changing classifications. The discussion centered on the state not being comfortable with 2A being larger than 1A. Three options were on the table for examination:

1. Leave it alone. 128- 2A teams with the rest to follow.( Doesn't appear this will fly)
2. 96 rest scenario. Cut 2A to 96 teams and leave the rest at 1A.
3. 50/50 split.

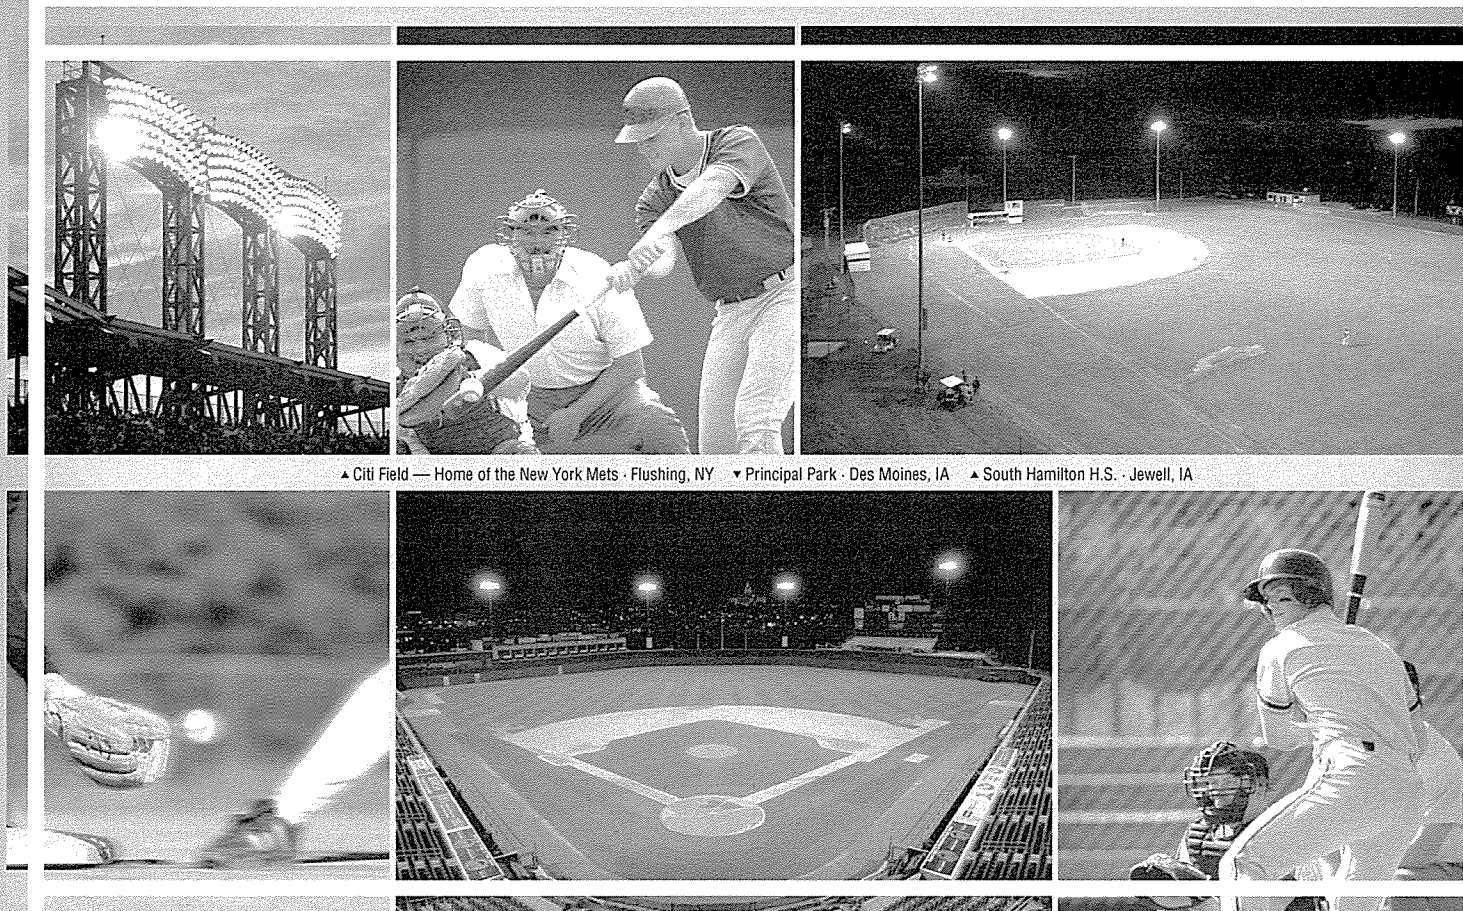

Steve mentioned that those in attendance seem to have a healthy and open discussion on this and felt that the Advisory Committees suggestions were at least being listened to. Steve then gave the ejection report. There were 96 ejections during the 2009-2010 season, up 23 from the previous season. Ejected coaches must now get on-line and pay $25.00 to take a sportsmanship video from the National Federation which will then produce a certificate that must be faxed or sent to the IHSAA before that coach can be on the field again. Steve also informed the group of the new bat regulations. No composite bat are legal for play in the 2011 season except those that are listed on the IHSAA web site, (All of those bats are Demarini). In 2012, all bats must meet BBCOR ratings and have an appropriate sticker. 4-A seeding was briefly discussed with Steve mentioning that only 3-A and 4-A games will be counted. Games against 1A and 2A opponents will not factor into sub state seeding and will not be counted among the first 30 games. Steve's committee recommended that experiment seeding should take place in 3A this summer, much like the 4A process a few years ago, then 3A seeding would begin for real in 2012. It was brought up that 11 Class 4A schools had to be contacted by the state for seeding information. Roughly a ¼ of the 4A schools either don't want seeding or don't care about it, which is too bad embarrassing. This 4A apathy might impact the opportunity for 2A and 1A schools to be seeded. If the 3A coaches are as negligent, the IHSAA will have all the ammo it needs to restrict future seeding. Mike Pauley motioned to accept report, Chris Oberbroeckling seconded, motion approved.

The Junior Show case report was given by Lee Toole. Lee again mentioned that this was a very successful endeavor. Dave Rock motioned to accept this report, Chris Oberboekling second, motion approved.

Dave Rock presented the Constitution Committee Report. Lee passed out the new proposed constitution. Dave went through each article with all the proposed changes highlighted in red. There was a discussion on Article IV section 2 regarding the wording of the membership cost. The group agreed to leave that wording as it was for now.

In the new business, Gary Paulsen motioned to accept this year's Hall of Fame, President, Primrose and Contributor award winners. Dave Middleton seconded this motion, motion was approved. Meeting was adjourned and board members moved to their respective district meetings.

Respectfully submitted'
Phil Katz

IHSBCA Award Winners:

Bill & Sherry Freese Contributors Award to Dave and Kendra Rock:

Dave, Kendra, and baseball. They are like peas in a pod. You find one, you'll find the other. These two modest warriors are a big reason why our association runs so smoothly. Their tireless efforts go above and beyond the call of duty. Both help organize and run our all-star series, along with our annual clinic. Both put in long hours each day and help in any way imaginable. Dave is always there to run a committee meeting when needed. He loves a challenge. Kendra is always ready to jump in and get to work. Her personality is contagious, along with a positive attitude that can knock any task down to size. Both Kendra and Dave have such an optimistic approach to everything; the glass is always half-full in their eyes. On behalf of the Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Association, we want to "Thank You" both for your outstanding efforts and contributions. Again, a very big Congratulations goes out to Dave and Kendra Rock for being named the recipients of the 2010 Bill and Sherry Freese Contributors Award!

President's Award to Jack Roeder:

When you mention the name, Cedar Rapids Kernels Baseball, one person comes to mind. That person is Jack Roeder. Jack is not only a true friend to Iowa High School baseball, but a true friend to our association. He has bent over backwards to help accommodate our all-star teams and staff when we come to Cedar Rapids. His hard work and dedication to baseball, the Kernels, and the City of Cedar Rapids exemplifies what the IHSBCA is all about. Jack's tireless efforts go above and beyond. Jack is retiring this year after 30 years of service to professional baseball in the Cedar Rapids and eastern Iowa area. We wish the very best for Jack as he hangs up the glove. We also hope he will continue to visit our all-star series and clinic event in the years to come. Congratulations to Jack Roeder for being named the 2010 recipient of the IHSBCA President's Award!

Harold "Pinky" Primrose Award to Milo Hamilton:

Hamilton was born in Fairfield, Iowa. He served in the United States Navy during World War II. During his time in the Navy, he broadcast on Armed Forces Radio. He graduated from the University of Iowa in 1949. After beginning his sports casting career by calling college football and basketball for the Iowa Hawkeyes, as well as minor league baseball in the Quad Cities region and the Tri-Cities Blackhawks of the NBA, (now the Atlanta Hawks), he got his first MLB announcing job in 1953, with the St. Louis Browns of the American League. When the Browns moved to Baltimore as the Orioles, Hamilton didn't go along. Instead, he moved to the St. Louis Cardinals, where he worked alongside Harry Caray and Jack Buck during the 1954 season. However, he was fired after only one year when the Cardinals wanted a spot in the booth for Joe Garagiola. He then moved to the Chicago Cubs, working alongside Jack Brickhouse and Vince Lloyd. After three years, he was fired when Cubs owner P.K. Wrigley wanted to make room for Lou Boudreau. Milo continued his broadcasting career with four other teams: Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), Chicago Cubs (1980-84), and the Houston Astros (1985-2009). Congratulations to Milo Hamilton for being the 2010 recipient of the Harold "Pinky" Primrose Award.

Two years earlier he'd won the biggest prize in his field: Tenure. A sport psychology professor and head baseball coach at a small liberal arts college in the Northeast New York, Hanson's previous 6 years of work was scrutinized by the toughest committee on campus and they gave him their stamp of approval. He had a secure job for the rest of his life. To the shock of many, he soon left it all and set off on an extraordinary personal adventure. "I just imagined how my life would be better if I could fully focus on what I was most passionate about," he said. His passion for enhancing human performance lead to the creation of his company, Heads-Up Performance, Inc. and consulting gigs with the likes of Microsoft, Fannie Mae, Kaiser Permanente and, in 2001, a full-time position coaching the New York Yankees. "They were really good and wanted to get a lot better," said Hanson of the Yankees, "that's the profile of the people I help most. Plus it fulfilled a life-long dream for me. I like making dreams come true — especially mine!"

Bounty from Hanson's personal adventure includes insider success secrets from elite performers in many fields. Sometimes they came in formal interviews with people like Home Run King Hank Aaron, Nolan Ryan, Pete Rose, or Fortune 500 executives, and sometimes they came from his individual coaching clients. "My doctoral research at the University of Virginia, my coaching, and most importantly, my personal experience show clearly that in order for people to make significant changes in their lives on the outside, be it getting rich, succeeding in their own business, or even losing weight, they need to first make significant changes on the inside," Hanson said. "They need to think better."

Hank Aaron's thinking changed Hanson's life. "He gave me a road map to high level, consistent excellence. He transformed himself from humble beginnings to the breaking the most coveted record in American sports and attributes his success not to any particular technique or strategy, but to the mental approach he detailed to me."

"My mission is to share the message that dramatic change is possible, and not all that hard, if you have some know-how, use your imagination, and take action."

Hanson has had considerable success driving that message home. His first book, Heads-Up Baseball: Playing the Game One Pitch at a Time, has sold over 60,000 copies worldwide and is called "the bible for learning mental toughness in baseball" by the leading publication in amateur baseball. It was required reading for the U.S. Olympic baseball team and many pro teams. His second book, Who Will Do What By When: How to Improve Performance, Accountability and Trust with Integrity has already empowered thousands of leaders with a step-by-step guide for manifesting their vision. Hanson's coaching, keynote speaking, and products (including his latest, "Confidence Conditioning") have all brought great acclaim.

Coach Brownlee's expertise on base stealing and hitting are a big reason why the baseball team continues to break team and individual records. Iowa stole 138 bases in 2008, a single season record; which broke the previous record of 127 set back in 1981. That 2008 team was ranked third in the nation in stolen bases. They qualified for the Big Ten Tournament for only the 8th time in school history, the fourth trip under Coach Dahm. The Hawks finished the tournament in second place, losing in the Championship game to Minnesota. The second place finish tied a school record that dated back to 1983. This year's 2011 recruiting class is ranked the best in the Big Ten, 4th in the mid-west, and 48th nationally.

Steve Eddie – Buena Vista University

Coach Eddie will be entering his 10th season at Buena Vista University this season. In just his second year as a college coach, Steve earned the 2002 Iowa Conference Coach of the Year Award after his team finished 24-14, 15-5 in the conference, which was good enough for a second place finish in the conference. His squad, which has appeared in the conference tournament five times under Steve, tied a school record for wins in a season in 2009 with 27. He's reached two milestones over the last three seasons, winning his 100th career game in 2007, then reaching his 150th career win in 2009. Coach Eddie played infield for the 1990 Big Ten Champion Iowa Hawkeyes. He spent seven years in the minor leagues with Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago White Sox. The All-Star Coaches are selected by the Steering committee during the January clinic. We are always looking for coaches to help with this great event. A past head coach must sit out for five years before coaching again. An assistant coach must sit out one year before he can apply again for a coaching position. We need coaches from all over the state to get a good balance. Please consider helping the association by coaching in a future all-star series.

Happy Holidays from the dugout:

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone!! Hard to believe we are a month away from the 43rd annual IHSBCA clinic. This year's clinic will again be held at the Marriott Hotel, 1200 Collins Road NE, in Cedar Rapids. You can go on-line to make reservations (www.cwp.marriott.com/cidmc/iabaseball), or call the Marriott reservations line at 1-800-396-2153. We are very excited about this year's clinic lineup. We are fortunate to have with us this year the co-author of the book, "Heads-Up Baseball", Dr. Tom Hanson. Dr. Hanson has worked with many major league baseball players on the mental side of the game. He will speak on Friday and again on Saturday. Also speaking at the clinic this year will be Iowa Western CC head coach, Marc Rardin. Marc coached the Reivers to the 2010 NJCAA National Championship. Marc will speak twice on Saturday. We will again have coach Jack Dahm and the University of Iowa staff. Returning to OUP clinic will be Buena Vista University coach Steve Eddie. We are pleased to have back joining us Doug West, head athletic trainer from the University of Iowa. Doug has presented valuable information on baseball injuries and rehab the past several years during our Saturday lunch mini-sessions. Due to popular demand, we have asked Doug to speak this year during the regular session. Dan Pomeroy will also join our lineup and enlighten us on rules from the umpire perspective. We will end the day on Friday with our high school coaches mini-clinics. Our high school coaches will be speaking on a variety of topics. Roger Barr, from the IHSAA, will continue to provide for coaches his rules meeting on Saturday morning. We will end the weekend on Sunday morning at the Iowa bubble as the Iowa baseball team will demonstrate drills and practice situations for coaches in attendance. Vendors will be allowed to start setting up their displays on Friday morning at 9:00am. The clinic will begin at 1:00pm Friday afternoon and continue through Saturday, ending at 3:30pm. The Awards Banquet will be held at the Marriott Hotel on Saturday evening, beginning at 6:00pm. We are looking forward to another outstanding weekend of baseball. With the clinic fast approaching, please check to make sure your membership has been paid for the 2010-2011 season. The new membership calendar year started on September 1, 2010 and runs till August 31, 2011. If your mailing label does not say 2011 on it, your dues have not yet been paid for this year. If you have questions, please give Lee Toole a call. Schools are reminded to take advantage of the school membership group rates. A reminder of how it works: the first two coaches pay $30.00, the third coach is $20.00, and the rest of the coaching staff is $15.00. The only catch to qualify for this coaching staff group discount rate is that all coaches from the same school must send in their membership forms together at the same time. Please review the association's constitution, which is in the back of this newsletter. Revisions are in red. We will vote to adopt the revised constitution at the clinic's general meeting. The Steering Committee, Board of Directors and each individual committee will meet prior to the start of the clinic on Friday. The Board and Steering Committee will meet on Thursday night, January 27th at the Marriott Hotel. The Steering Committee meeting will begin at 6:30pm, with the Board of Directors meeting beginning at 8:30pm. Committee and district meetings will take place on Friday morning. Please refer to the list found in this newsletter towards the times and locations of the other individual committee meetings. The general session meeting, which is open to all association members, will take place on Friday morning at 11:00am. Congratulations to Grandview University head baseball coach Lou Yacinich for his induction into the ABCA's Hall of Fame this coming January. An outstanding honor for a great person and a great ambassador for the game of baseball! Coach Yacinich will also be one of our speakers at the January clinic.
