Christmas baskets for CASA

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) are trained volunteers who advocate for abused and neglected children in family court. CASA volunteers deal with abuse, neglect, and abandonment cases referred to them by Child Protective Services (CPS).

North Hill is providing Christmas food baskets to five host families. Food needed for the baskets:

Hams, Rolls, Milk, Scalloped/Au Gratin Potatoes,

Canned Baked Beans, Canned Yams, Canned Fruit (peaches, pears, fruit cocktail),

Canned veggies (peas, corn, beans, olives), Brown sugar Butter/Margarine, Frozen Pies (apple, cherry, pumpkin)

Jell-O, Christmas Candy, Hot Chocolate Mini marshmallows

$ for Extras (please indicate on your giving envelope and place in the offering basket)

December Sunday School

As the Sunday School class is finishing up their book study of “My Body is Not a Prayer Request” we will continue in our learning about disability justice with watching the movie “Crip Camp” in Hazen Hall throughout the month of December (until we finish the movie). You are invited to join us as we take this time to learn about the history of the disability rights movement.

Congregational Meeting

There will be a congregational meeting on Sunday December 8th to review and vote on the 2025 church budget.
