Extracts from "9 Famous Fathers in the Bible," By Jack Zavada*

Scripture is filled with people we can learn much from. When it comes to the challenging vocation of fatherhood, several fathers in the Bible show what is wise to do and also what is not wise to do. The most important father figure in the Bible is God the Father—the ultimate role model for all human dads. His love, kindness, patience, wisdom to live up to. Fortunately, he is also forgiving and understanding, answering fathers' prayers, and giving them expert guidance so they can be the man their family wants them to be.

Lessons to Learn From Adam- The First Man

God is looking for fathers who freely choose to obey him and submit to his love. Fathers with integrity live in the knowledge that nothing is hidden from God's sight. Instead of blaming others, godly fathers take responsibility for their own failures and shortcomings.

Lessons to Learn From Noah – A Righteous Man

God promises to bless and protect those who faithfully follow and obey him. Obedience is not a sprint but a marathon. It means a lifetime of faithful devotion. Even the most faithful fathers have weaknesses and can fall into sin.

Lessons to Learn From Abraham - Father of the Jewish Nation

God wants to use us, in spite of our shortcomings. He will even rescue and support us through our foolish mistakes.

Genuine faith pleases God.

God's purposes and plans are revealed in phases over a lifetime of obedience.

Lessons to Learn From Isaac – Son of Abraham

God loves to answer a father's prayers.

Trusting God is wiser than lying.

Parents should not show favoritism to one child over another.

Lessons to Learn From Jacob Father of the Twelve Tribes of Israel

God wants us to trust him so we will benefit from his blessings.

Fighting against God is a losing battle.

We often worry about missing God's will for our life, but God works with our mistakes and bad decisions.

God's will is sovereign; his plans cannot be undone.

Lessons to Learn From Moses - Giver of the Law

With God all things are possible.

Sometimes we must delegate to be a good leader.

God desires intimate fellowship with every believer.

No one can follow God's laws perfectly. We all need a Savior.

Lessons to Learn from King David - A Man After God's Own Heart

Honest self-examination is necessary to recognize our own sin.

God wants our whole hearts.

We cannot hide our sins from God.

Sins have consequences.

The Lord is always there for us.

Lessons to Learn From Joseph – Earthly Father of Jesus

God honors men of integrity and rewards them with his trust.

Mercy always wins.

Obedience may result in humiliation and disgrace before men, but close friendship with God.

Lessons to Learn From God the Father

God is constant; he never changes. We can depend on Him.

God is faithful.

God is love.

Our heavenly father is an example for earthly fathers to emulate.
