Some words of thanksgiving

Since the last Eleutheros newsletter I have had the opportunity to go on what I have labeled a “mini book tour.” The excursion took me to 4 cities and enabled me to experience a number of great blessings. These included some time with my two sons, a meeting with a dear friend named Henry, a meal with Rev. Doyle Peyton, services at the Ohio Fire Conference, time with Lorlyn (“Lori”) and Glenn, and a wonderful Sunday service at Calvary Baptist Church in Ashland, OH. I returned spiritually refreshed. God is good!

Thoughts on justification

And he believed in God, and He counted it to Him for righteousness (Genesis 15:6).

World Outreach News

Eleutheros Books is committed to reaching out to people all over the world. Here are the various ministries:

Christian Speed Reading Instructor Darryl Hold has been teaching Speed Reading since 1992. The Lord led him to create a Speed Reading 30 video course for Christians using John Rataczak, PhD, book "The Ramifications of Our Salvation" as the course manual. While the video quality is homemade, the content is truly life changing in learning how to speed read for business and personal enhancement, so that we can serve the Lord Jesus Christ to the best of our ability. On a spiritual level, "The Ramifications of Our Salvation" will help many Christians deepen their discipleship. Contact Darryl Hold with any questions.

The great German reformer Martin Luther grew up believing in the efficacy of the sacraments of Romanism. Before his conversion he was a Roman Catholic priest and the best-known attorney in all of Germany.

In his day the mass was held in Latin. Only the priesthood of the Church knew that language, so the people really did not understand what was happening in their houses of worship every Sunday. This is pretty much the way things were in the medieval world.

Then one day Luther read from the Scriptures how one is justified. The Holy Spirit moved mightily in his heart and he was saved. Thus justification is at the very heart of the Reformation movement and a major doctrine in our Biblical understanding of salvation today as well.

Listed below are some of the things Luther and others since him have taught from the Bible about the doctrine of justification.

1. It is an act of God whereby He declares all those who believe in Christ to be righteous.

Here is the picture we should get when we consider justification. We are in God's courtroom. Satan is our accuser, Jesus is our attorney, the Father is the Judge. Having considered our case, that we have been saved and made holy through positional sanctification, the Father declares us to be righteous.

Consider how magnificent such a truth as this is! God not only makes us holy; He actually DECLARES it! When God declares such, we can be sure that it is right and that no creature in all the universe can overturn such a decision!

Being justified freely by His grace (Romans 3:24a).

To declare, I say, at this time His righteousness: that He might be just and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus (Romans 3:26).

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 5:1).

2. It cannot be accomplished by keeping the Law or any of our "good works."

For as many as are of the Law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book to do them. But that no man is justified by the Law in the sight of God, It is evident: for the just shall live by faith (Galatians 3:10-11).

3. It causes a restoration to favor with God.

And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God (James 2:23).

A request has been made by a ministry in Pakistan! They have requested 1,000 copies of "The Ramifications of Our Salvation." You can make donations to Eleutheros Books c/o Lewis Avenue Baptist Church, 6320 Lewis Ave. Temperance, MI 48182.

Eleutheros Books has a heart to work with Gospel Outreach Mission in Myanmar, headed by Rev. Martin Lalthangliana. The book will be translated into Mizo, Burmese, Kachin, Chin, Shan

4. It is taught in both the Old and New Testaments.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit is no guile (Psalm 32:2).

That being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life (Titus 3:7).

5. God keeps a record of it in the heavenly courts.

This is what the words “impute” and “reckon” mean when they are used in connection with justification.

To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them: and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation (II Corinthians 5:19).

6. It is by grace, faith, and the blood of Christ.

Being justified freely by His grace (Romans 3:24).

Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the Law (Romans 3:28).

Much more then, being justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him (Romans 5:9).

sanctification.

In sanctification God makes the believer holy in position and practice. In justification God takes things one step farther. He actually, in a judicial sense, declares the believer to be holy and places the record in His court forever!

One Day!

Living, He loved me.

Dying, He saved me.

Buried, He carried my sins far away;

Rising, He justified freely forever:

One day He's coming—

Oh, glorious day!

“Eleutheros” is the Greek adjective which means “free” and the theme verse is John 8:36: “If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.”

Eleutheros Ministries is dedicated to two great causes:

A revival of evangelism throughout the world.

A revival of Biblical thinking among God’s people.
