

Erik Polanco serves as Senior Advisor to Resource Group of North America, INC. He has worked professionally in the government space for five years. He began his career consulting for the Republican Party of Florida's House Campaigns arm, with respect to incumbent political campaigns in the Florida Legislature. Since then he has participated in municipal, federal (House and Senate) and territorial political campaigns. He has served clients with regards to their strategic legal counsel, business development, corporate advice, and strategic relationships within industries such as: healthcare, media, construction, disaster response, real estate, security, and maintenance among others. He previously held a corporate position as Executive Vice President for a Florida based disaster response service provider servicing private and public sector clients in Florida and the Caribbean.

Erik maintains a local presence in the community and sits on the board of The Big Heart Brigade a Palm Beach County, FL based 501(c)(3) and is currently advising on United States Senate, U.S. Virgin Islands Senate, and Florida State House campaigns.