He Came as a Child

A child shall lead them.

While the enemy tries to erase their culture and their people, Jesus is still active, alive, and all powerful. He came as a child, innocent and of little threat except to the enemy.

He grew, his apostles grew, and the church worldwide grew. Hope was born on Christmas morning. Hope has flourished in dark days and days of seeming defeat.

There is still hope. Reach out with your heart and your hand to give food, medicine, clothes, and support the Good News of Great Joy that is being preached across Ukraine right now. Unless we become a child...

Pray Big! Pray Bold!

Reach out your hand

What do we want?
What do they want?

Medicine
Food
Water
Heat
Electric
Freedom

And most of all

Jesus

Prayers Please.

In a cold, and dark holiday, there is still celebration! Still hope!

Years ago and yet...

What Has Changed?

Maybe some of you will notice –this is the same basic newsletter we sent out last year. Why? Because little has changed. Many of you will not have noticed, just as you probably have lost sight of the war in Ukraine, the lost lives, the suffering, the children kidnapped by Russia by the hundreds, and the tremendous material needs right now. Nothing has changed. In fact it has gotten worse. And yet our partners, pastors, friends work tirelessly, trying to meet needs. And most of all the need of a Savior.

Regretfully, donations have dropped dramatically. I have apologized to our partners many times lately as they beg for needed funds. For 20 years we have begged for them. And nothing has changed.

He gave His all for us, and what can we give Him today?
