The War - 1 year!

One year ago...

...the threat of Russian all-out war became a reality. We were expecting it as they built up troops, but it was still a shock to see this kind of horror in our world today.

And you all came through! Thousands of dollars came in for Ukrainian food, medicines, and supplies. We bought generators, and even a van.

I was on facetime, and messaging all week long, almost every week. We kept in communications with our pastor friends and many others. We posted updates in our news and on Facebook. And speaking engagements were abundant.

Our friends encouraged, prayed, and sacrificed. But as the war raged on, donations began waning. We are still receiving funds and we are still praying—hard, but the need is even greater.

In just a few days Russia will possibly be launching a new and bigger offensive. Your prayers are needed more than ever. Don't give up!

Never give up!

Pray Big! Pray Bold!
