

FUNERAL PLANNING BOOKLET

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The promise of eternal life with God once the earthly journey of a faithful disciple has ended is the greatest hope, comfort and strength of our Catholic faith. As Saint Paul teaches us:

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For is we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. [...] Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words (1 Th 4:13-14, 17-18).

Saint Paul's exhortation that we conduct ourselves, even in grieving, as a people of hope can be a challenge. At times, our sorrow and bewilderment in the face of the loss of loved ones can be overwhelming.

Uplifted by the knowledge that Christ has won for us the victory over death, we can begin to understand what he proclaims in the Gospel: "Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted" (Mt 5:4). As Christians, our comfort is the Resurrection and the hope of new and eternal life and a worthy funeral liturgy for your loved one supports us in that belief. Here are a few guiding principles:

- 1. It is important to collaborate with the pastoral staff of the parish when planning a funeral. When faced with the loss of a loved one, immediate planning of a funeral is a difficult and trying experience. For parish staff, especially the clergy, the death of a parishioner is a uniquely privileged and graced opportunity for the Church to guide the family toward Christ's invitation of hope and reconciliation in the face of separation and death. This can be especially important when the family does not have the assistance of a funeral home.
- 2. The Church encourages the celebration of funerals with a Mass whenever possible. Since the celebration of the Mass is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet in union with God that commemorates and makes present Christ's victory over death, funerals are principally and preferably celebrated with a Mass, our most profound way of expressing communion with the living and the dead. Nonetheless, there are reasons to request a funeral without a Mass, for example if the majority of the mourners are not familiar with the format and responses of the Catholic Mass. These services can be held in locations outside of the church, such as at a funeral home, and a deacon may also preside.
- 3. If cremation is desired for legitimate reasons, the Church prefers that the funeral liturgy occur before cremation. As Christ's Church, we believe that the human body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, and that, like Christ, our bodies will one day rise from the dead. The physical presence of the body of a deceased member of the faithful is a very powerful sign of this Christian mystery and belief. Cremation is permitted, unless chosen for reasons that contradict Christian teaching, particularly on the dignity of and hope for the resurrection of the human body. Such cremation should ideally occur after the celebration of the funeral liturgy. If this is not possible, however, the presentation and placement of the urn for the funeral liturgy should be simple and solemn so as not to detract from the dignity of the body in its cremated form.
- 4. The Church requires that cremated remains are always to be treated with respect in light of the Resurrection of the body, and not scattered afar or divided up. In our tradition, we affirm both the uniqueness of each person and the bonds that unite us as the Body of Christ. Thus, we bury or inter the dead in cemeteries, which reverently mark the lives of each individual, while serving as powerful, visual reminders of the community that remains after death.

Most important is to ensure that cremated remains will be treated with respect in the future. Until they are buried or interred, cremated remains have the potential of being lost, discarded, or mistreated. Keeping cremated remains unburied or dividing them among private persons does not respect the integrity of the person's body and memory. So strongly do we hold this belief that if a plan exists to scatter afar or divide the cremains then no funeral can be permitted until respect for the deceased person is assured.¹ We understand that families may have financial or other reasons to delay the burial or interment of cremains and the Church is happy to help when the time comes for the burial or interment.

5. If your family desires, a minister can lead a rosary service for your loved one. These are held either at the funeral home the evening before or at the church immediately before the funeral itself.

6. A luncheon following the services is an option and a ministry of our Church. A small fee is asked to help with the costs of the meat and dishware. The Council of Catholic Women (CCW) will provide most of the salads, desserts and drinks as a gift. Please inform the Funeral Director if you desire a meal in our parish hall. Luncheons must occur after the burial, unless the burial is further than 10 miles from North Platte.

7. Some families do not employ the services of a funeral home and prefer to make the arrangements themselves. In this case, the family should still fill out this planning packet for readings, ministers and music; call the parish office to connect with our musicians. If desired, the family should provide their own card basket, sign-in book and pens. A luncheon may be arranged, either prepared by the CCW or by the family itself; call the parish office to arrange this. The family can arrange their own flowers, though the parish is unable to provide plant stands. Arrangements should be set at least 30 minutes prior to the service and delivery of flowers is allowed up to 24 hours prior. Live-streaming can be requested using the parish's equipment; the link is youtube.com/@stpatsnp. There is no charge for funerals, but it is customary to make an offering to the parish.

8. The funeral is one opportunity to pray for your loved one's repose, but it is ancient Christian custom to pray for the dead (2 Macc 12:43-46), especially on anniversaries or other important days. It is a good practice to have additional Masses offered for the deceased. These can be arranged through the parish office.

9. We would be most grateful if memorials for your loved one are suggested to St. Patrick's Catholic Church or to North Platte Catholic Schools.

Conclusion: What we believe about death guides how we live our lives. As Christians, we must carry life's crosses and bear loss with hope in our hearts. We must give up the bodies of the deceased and remember that through Christ, "the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers and cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them" (Mt 11:5; Lk 7:22). Unlike many in our secular society, we do not turn away from death nor allow ourselves to believe that death is the end. Trusting that God "will wipe away every tear" (Rv 21:4), we stand before him in grief but not in despair. The funeral rites of the Catholic Church, which I have endeavored to explain briefly, invite us to live the virtue of hope. Through these rites, the Church responds to death by celebrating the hope of eternal life.

As the Church's liturgy helps us to pray and affirm during the funeral Mass:

In him the hope of blessed resurrection has dawned, that those saddened by the certainty of dying might be consoled by the promise of immortality to come. Indeed for your faithful, Lord, life is changed not ended, and, when this earthly dwelling turns to dust, an eternal dwelling is made ready for them in heaven. (Roman Missal, n. 78).

Funeral for: _____

Date: _____

Time: _____

The pall is a white cloth draped over a casket which symbolizes the deceased's baptism: "For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Gal 3:27). In this way we all appear before God's altar in the same way. Either family members or the Funeral Directors can place the pall on the casket at the beginning of the service. If your loved one has not been cremated, whom do you wish to place the pall?

(check one) _____ Family _____ Funeral Directors

However, if cremation was chosen, the cremains are placed on a table in front of God's altar before the service and without a pall. The family may also place flowers and a small photo on the table beforehand, but without moving any seasonal decorations or blocking the altar and procession areas.

Part One: Liturgy of the Word

Select the Readings - The readings proclaim to the assembly the Paschal Mystery, teach remembrance of the dead, convey the hope of being gathered together again in God's Kingdom, and encourage the witness of Christian life. Above all, the readings tell of God's designs for a world in which suffering and death will relinquish their hold on all whom God has called his own. A careful selection and use of readings from Scripture for the funeral rites will provide an opportunity to hear God speak to our needs, sorrows, fears, and hopes. There may be one reading from the Old Testament OR one reading from the New Testament, then one reading from the Gospels. It is also acceptable to have one from each. If this is a funeral Mass, the reader should be a Catholic; for other services, other readers may be chosen. The priest or deacon is happy to select appropriate readings for your loved one, if you wish.

(Special readings for funerals for children can be found in a supplement with lavender-colored pages).

Part Two: Liturgy of the Eucharist (for funerals with Mass)

It is a common practice to have members of the family bring forward the gifts of bread and wine to be offered on the altar. Just as they are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ, so also the body of your loved one will be transformed at the Resurrection.

Hymns / Music

Music is an important part of Catholic funeral rites. Music has the power to strengthen the faith and hope of those present. The hymns chosen should express the mystery of our salvation in Christ, namely, the saving power of the Lord's suffering, death and resurrection. Hymns which can be sung together by the assembly help provide worshippers a way to participate more fully in the prayer. Therefore, we prefer a cantor and accompanist who can lead the assembly in singing. Secular songs, even though they may have been meaningful to the deceased or the family, do not capture the Gospel message of hope nor the sacred quality of Christian worship. Such songs are more appropriate at the Vigil, rosary or committal service, or at the reception.

First Reading #1

2 Maccabees 12:43-46

Judas, the ruler of Israel, | took up a collection among all his soldiers, | amounting to two thousand silver drachmas, | which he sent to Jerusalem to provide for an expiatory sacrifice. | In doing this he acted in a very excellent and noble way, | inasmuch as he had the resurrection of the dead in view; | for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again, | it would have been useless and foolish to pray for them in death. | But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward | that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness, | it was a holy and pious thought. | Thus he made atonement for the dead | that they might be freed from this sin.

First Reading #2

Job 19:1, 23-27a

Job answered Bildad the Shuhite and said: | Oh, would that my words were written down! | Would that they were inscribed in a record: | That with an iron chisel and with lead | they were cut in the rock forever! | But as for me, I know that my Vindicator lives, | and that he will at last stand forth upon the dust; | Whom I myself shall see: | my own eyes, not another's, shall behold him; | And from my flesh I shall see God; | my inmost being is consumed with longing.

First Reading #3

Wisdom 3:1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, | and no torment shall touch them. | They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; | and their passing away was thought an affliction | and their going forth from us, utter destruction. | But they are in peace. | For if before men, indeed they be punished, | yet is their hope full of immortality; | Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, | because God tried them | and found them worthy of himself. | As gold in the furnace, he proved them, | and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. | In the time of their visitation they shall shine, | and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; | They shall judge nations and rule over peoples, | and the LORD shall be their King forever. | Those who trust in him shall understand truth, | and the faithful shall abide with him in love: | Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, | and his care is with his elect.

First Reading #4

Wisdom 4:7-15

The just man, though he die early, | shall be at rest. | For the age that is honorable comes not | with the passing of time, | nor can it be measured in terms of years. | Rather, understanding is the hoary crown for men, | and an unsullied life, the attainment of old age. | He who pleased God was loved; | he who lived among sinners was transported— | Snatched away, lest wickedness pervert his mind | or deceit beguile his soul; | For the witchery of paltry things obscures what is right | and the whirl of desire transforms the innocent mind. | Having become perfect in a short while, | he reached the fullness of a long career; | for his soul was pleasing to the LORD, | therefore he sped him out of the midst of wickedness. | But the people saw and did not understand, | nor did they take this into account.

TAN PAGES

First Reading #5Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts | will provide for all peoples. | On this mountain he will destroy | the veil that veils all peoples, | The web that is woven over all nations; | he will destroy death forever. | The Lord GOD will wipe away | the tears from all faces; | The reproach of his people he will remove | from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken. | On that day it will be said: | “Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! | This is the LORD for whom we looked; | let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!”

First Reading #6Lamentations 3:17-26

My soul is deprived of peace, | I have forgotten what happiness is; | I tell myself my future is lost, | all that I hoped for from the LORD. | The thought of my homeless poverty | is wormwood and gall; | Remembering it over and over | leaves my soul downcast within me. | But I will call this to mind, | as my reason to have hope: | The favors of the LORD are not exhausted, | his mercies are not spent; | They are renewed each morning, | so great is his faithfulness. | My portion is the LORD, says my soul; | therefore will I hope in him. | Good is the LORD to one who waits for him, | to the soul that seeks him; | It is good to hope in silence | for the saving help of the LORD.

First Reading #7Daniel 12:1-3

In those days, I, Daniel, mourned | and heard this word of the Lord: | At that time there shall arise | Michael, the great prince, | guardian of your people; | It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress | since nations began until that time. | At that time your people shall escape, | everyone who is found written in the book. | Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; | Some shall live forever, | others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace. | But the wise shall shine brightly | like the splendor of the firmament, | And those who lead the many to justice | shall be like the stars forever.

Note: one of the following four options must be used for the first reading from Easter Sunday until Pentecost, because it is the time of the Lord's Resurrection:

First Reading (Easter Season) #1 Acts 10:34-43

Peter proceeded to speak, saying: | "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. | Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly | is acceptable to him. | You know the word that he sent to the children of Israel | as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, | what has happened all over Judea, | beginning in Galilee after the baptism | that John preached, | how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth | with the Holy Spirit and power. | He went about doing good | and healing all those oppressed by the Devil, | for God was with him. | We are witnesses of all that he did | both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. | They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. | This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, | not to all the people, but to us, | the witnesses chosen by God in advance, | who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. | He commissioned us to preach to the people | and testify that he is the one appointed by God | as judge of the living and the dead. | To him all the prophets bear witness, | that everyone who believes in him | will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

First Reading (Easter Season) #2 Revelation 14:13

I, John, heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this: | Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." | "Yes," said the Spirit, | "let them find rest from their labors, | for their works accompany them."

First Reading (Easter Season) #3 Revelation 20:11—21:1

I, John, saw a large white throne and the one who was sitting on it. | The earth and the sky fled from his presence | and there was no place for them. | I saw the dead, the great and the lowly, standing before the throne, | and scrolls were opened. | Then another scroll was opened, the book of life. | The dead were judged | according to their deeds, | by what was written in the scrolls. | The sea gave up its dead; | then Death and Hades gave up their dead. | All the dead were judged according to their deeds. | Then Death and Hades were thrown into the pool of fire. | (This pool of fire is the second death.) | Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life | was thrown into the pool of fire. | Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. | The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, | and the sea was no more.

First Reading (Easter Season) #4 Revelation 21:1-5a, 6b-7

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. | The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, | and the sea was no more. | I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, | coming down out of heaven from God, | prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. | I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, | "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. | He will dwell with them and they will be his people | and God himself will always be with them as their God. | He will wipe every tear from their eyes, | and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, | for the old order has passed away." | The One who sat on the throne said, | "Behold, I make all things new." | I am the Alpha and the Omega, | the beginning and the end. | To the thirsty I will give a gift | from the spring of life-giving water. | The victor will inherit these gifts, | and I shall be his God, | and he will be my son."

Second Reading #1Romans 5:5-11

Brothers and sisters: | Hope does not disappoint, | because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts | through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. | For Christ, while we were still helpless, | died at the appointed time for the ungodly. | Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, | though perhaps for a good person | one might even find courage to die. | But God proves his love for us | in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. | How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, | will we be saved through him from the wrath. | Indeed, if, while we were enemies, | we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, | how much more, once reconciled, | will we be saved by his life. | Not only that, | but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, | through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Second Reading #2Romans 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters: | If, by the transgression of the one, | death came to reign through that one, | how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace | and of the gift of justification | come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ. | In conclusion, just as through one transgression | condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, | acquittal and life came to all. | For just as through the disobedience of the one man | the many were made sinners, | so through the obedience of the one | the many will be made righteous. | The law entered in so that transgression might increase | but, where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more, so that, | as sin reigned in death, | grace also might reign through justification for eternal life | through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Second Reading #3Romans 6:3-9

Brothers and sisters: | Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus | were baptized into his death? | We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, | so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead | by the glory of the Father, | we too might live in newness of life. | For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, | we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. | We know that our old self was crucified with him, | so that our sinful body might be done away with, | that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. | For a dead person has been absolved from sin. | If, then, we have died with Christ, | we believe that we shall also live with him. | We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; | death no longer has power over him.

Second Reading #4Romans 8:14-23

Brothers and sisters: | Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. | For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, | but you received a spirit of adoption, | through which we cry, Abba, "Father!" | The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit | that we are children of God, | and if children, then heirs, | heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, | if only we suffer with him | so that we may also be glorified with him. | I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing | compared with the glory to be revealed for us. | For creation awaits with eager expectation | the revelation of the children of God; | for creation was made subject to futility, | not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, | in hope that creation itself | would be set free from slavery to corruption | and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; | and not only that, but we ourselves, | who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, | we also groan within ourselves | as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

Second Reading #5Romans 8:31b-35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters: | If God is for us, who can be against us? | He did not spare his own Son | but handed him over for us all, | will he not also give us everything else along with him? | Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? | It is God who acquits us. | Who will condemn? | It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised, | who also is at the right hand of God, | who indeed intercedes for us. | What will separate us from the love of Christ? | Will anguish, or distress or persecution, or famine, | or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? | No, in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly | through him who loved us. | For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, | nor angels, nor principalities, | nor present things, nor future things, | nor powers, nor height, nor depth, | nor any other creature will be able to separate us | from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Second Reading #6Romans 14:7-9, 10c-12

Brothers and sisters: | No one lives for oneself, | and no one dies for oneself. | For if we live, we live for the Lord, | and if we die, we die for the Lord; | so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. | For this is why Christ died and came to life, | that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. | Why then do you judge your brother? | Or you, why do you look down on your brother? | For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God; | for it is written: | As I live, says the Lord, every knee | shall bend before me, | and every tongue shall give praise to God. | So then each of us shall give an accounting of himself to God.

Second Reading #71 Corinthians 15:20-28

Brothers and sisters: | Christ has been raised from the dead, | the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. | For since death came through a man, | the resurrection of the dead came also through man. | For just as in Adam all die, | so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, | but each one in proper order: | Christ the firstfruits; | then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; | then comes the end, | when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father. | For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. | The last enemy to be destroyed is death, | for "he subjected everything under his feet." | But when it says that everything has been subjected, | it is clear that it excludes the one who subjected everything to him. | When everything is subjected to him, | then the Son himself will also be subjected | to the one who subjected everything to him, | so that God may be all in all.

Second Reading #81 Corinthians 15:51-57

Brothers and sisters: | Behold, I tell you a mystery. | We shall not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed, | in an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet. | For the trumpet will sound, | the dead will be raised incorruptible, | and we shall be changed. | For that which is corruptible must clothe itself with incorruptibility, | and that which is mortal must clothe itself with immortality. | And when this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility | and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, | then the word that is written shall come about: | Death is swallowed up in victory. | Where, O death, is your victory? | Where, O death, is your sting? | The sting of death is sin, | and the power of sin is the law. | But thanks be to God who gives us the victory | through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Second Reading #92 Corinthians 4:14—5:1

Brothers and sisters: | Knowing that the One who raised the Lord Jesus | will raise us also with Jesus | and place us with you in his presence. | Everything indeed is for you, | so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people | may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God. | Therefore, we are not discouraged; | rather, although our outer self is wasting away, | our inner self is being renewed day by day. | For this momentary light affliction | is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, | as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; | for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal. |

GREEN PAGES

For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, | should be destroyed, | we have a building from God, | a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

Second Reading #10 2 Corinthians 5:1, 6-10

Brothers and sisters: | We know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, | should be destroyed, | we have a building from God, | a dwelling not made with hands, | eternal in heaven. | We are always courageous, | although we know that while we are at home in the body | we are away from the Lord, | for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, | and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. | Therefore, we aspire to please him, | whether we are at home or away. | For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, | so that each may receive recompense, | according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

Second Reading #11 Philippians 3:20-21

Brothers and sisters: | Our citizenship is in heaven, | and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly body | to conform with his glorified Body | by the power that enables him also | to bring all things into subjection to himself.

Second Reading #12 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, | about those who have fallen asleep, | so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. | For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, | so too will God, through Jesus, | bring with him those who have fallen asleep. | Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, | that we who are alive, | who are left until the coming of the Lord, | will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. | For the Lord himself, with a word of command, | with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, | will come down from heaven, | and the dead in Christ will rise first. | Then we who are alive, who are left, | will be caught up together with them in the clouds | to meet the Lord in the air. | Thus we shall always be with the Lord. | Therefore, console one another with these words.

Second Reading #13 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved: | Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: | such is my Gospel, for which I am suffering, | even to the point of chains, like a criminal. | But the word of God is not chained. | Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, | so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, | together with eternal glory. | This saying is trustworthy: | If we have died with him | we shall also live with him; | if we persevere | we shall also reign with him. | But if we deny him | he will deny us. | If we are unfaithful | he remains faithful, | for he cannot deny himself.

Second Reading #14 1 John 3:1-2

Beloved: | See what love the Father has bestowed on us | that we may be called the children of God. | Yet so we are. | The reason the world does not know us | is that it did not know him. | Beloved, we are God's children now; | what we shall be has not yet been revealed. | We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, | for we shall see him as he is.

Second Reading #15 1 John 3:14-16

Beloved: | We know that we have passed from death to life | because we love our brothers. | Whoever does not love remains in death. | Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, | and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him. | The way we came to know love | was that he laid down his life for us; | so we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.

Gospel Reading #1Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, | and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. | He began to teach them, saying: | "Blessed are the poor in spirit, | for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. | Blessed are they who mourn, | for they will be comforted. | Blessed are the meek, | for they will inherit the land. | Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, | for they will be satisfied. | Blessed are the merciful, | for they will be shown mercy. | Blessed are the clean of heart, | for they will see God. | Blessed are the peacemakers, | for they will be called children of God. | Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, | for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. | Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you | and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. | Rejoice and be glad, | for your reward will be great in heaven."

Gospel Reading #2Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus answered: | "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, | for although you have hidden these things | from the wise and the learned | you have revealed them to the childlike. | Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. | All things have been handed over to me by my Father. | No one knows the Son except the Father, | and no one knows the Father except the Son | and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him." | "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, | and I will give you rest. | Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, | for I am meek and humble of heart; | and you will find rest for yourselves. | For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

Gospel Reading #3Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: | "The Kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins | who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. | Five of them were foolish and five were wise. | The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, | brought no oil with them, | but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. | Since the bridegroom was long delayed, | they all became drowsy and fell asleep. | At midnight, there was a cry, | 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' | Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. | The foolish ones said to the wise, | 'Give us some of your oil, | for our lamps are going out.' | But the wise ones replied, | 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. | Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' | While they went off to buy it, | the bridegroom came | and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. | Then the door was locked. | Afterwards the other virgins came and said, | 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' | But he said in reply, | 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' | Therefore, stay awake, | for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Gospel Reading #4Matthew 25:31-46*WHITE PAGE

Jesus said to his disciples: | "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, | and all the angels with him, | he will sit upon his glorious throne, | and all the nations will be assembled before him. | And he will separate them one from another, | as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. | He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. | Then the king will say to those on his right, | 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. | Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. | For I was hungry and you gave me food, | I was thirsty and you gave me drink, | a stranger and you welcomed me, | naked and you clothed me, | ill and you cared for me, | in prison and you visited me.' | Then the righteous will answer him and say, | 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, | or thirsty and give you drink? | When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, | or naked and clothe you? | When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' | And the king will say to them in reply, | 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did | for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.' | Then he will say to those on his left, | 'Depart from me, you accursed, | into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels. | For I was hungry and you gave me no food, | I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, | a stranger and you gave me no welcome, | naked and you gave me no clothing, | ill and in prison,

and you did not care for me.' | Then they will answer and say, | 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty | or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, | and not minister to your needs?' | He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, | what you did not do for one of these least ones, | you did not do for me.' | And these will go off to eternal punishment, | but the righteous to eternal life."

Gospel Reading #5

Mark 15:33-39; 16:1-6

At noon darkness came over the whole land | until three in the afternoon. | And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, | "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" | which is translated, | "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" | Some of the bystanders who heard it said, | "Look, he is calling Elijah." | One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed, | and gave it to him to drink, saying, | "Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down." | Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. | The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. | When the centurion who stood facing him | saw how he breathed his last he said, | "Truly this man was the Son of God!" | When the sabbath was over, | Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James, and Salome | bought spices so that they might go and anoint him. | Very early when the sun had risen, | on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb. | They were saying to one another, | "Who will roll back the stone for us | from the entrance to the tomb?" | When they looked up, | they saw that the stone had been rolled back; | it was very large. | On entering the tomb they saw a young man | sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, | and they were utterly amazed. | He said to them, "Do not be amazed! | You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. | He has been raised; he is not here. | Behold the place where they laid him."

Gospel Reading #6

Luke 7:11-17

Jesus journeyed to a city called Nain, | and his disciples and a large crowd accompanied him. | As he drew near to the gate of the city, | a man who had died was being carried out, | the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. | A large crowd from the city was with her. | When the Lord saw her, | he was moved with pity for her and said to her, | "Do not weep." | He stepped forward and touched the coffin; | at this the bearers halted, | and he said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" | The dead man sat up and began to speak, | and Jesus gave him to his mother. | Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, exclaiming, | "A great prophet has arisen in our midst," | and "God has visited his people." | This report about him spread through the whole of Judea | and in all the surrounding region.

Gospel Reading #7

Luke 12:35-40

Jesus said to his disciples: | "Gird your loins and light your lamps | and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, | ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. | Blessed are those servants | whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. | Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, | have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. | And should he come in the second or third watch | and find them prepared in this way, | blessed are those servants. | Be sure of this: | if the master of the house had known the hour | when the thief was coming, | he would not have let his house be broken into. | You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, | the Son of Man will come."

Gospel Reading #8

Luke 23:33, 39-43

When the soldiers came to the place called the Skull, | they crucified Jesus and the criminals there, | one on his right, the other on his left. | Now one of the criminals hanging there | reviled Jesus, saying, | "Are you not the Christ? | Save yourself and us." | The other man, however, rebuking him, said in reply, | "Have you no fear of God, | for you are subject to the same condemnation? | And indeed, we have been condemned justly, | for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, | but this man has done nothing criminal." | Then he said, | "Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom." | He replied to him, | "Amen, I say to you, | today you will be with me in Paradise."

Gospel Reading #9Luke 23:44-46, 50, 52-53; 24:1-6a

It was about noon and darkness came over the whole land | until three in the afternoon | because of an eclipse of the sun. | Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. | Jesus cried out in a loud voice, | "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; | and when he had said this he breathed his last. | Now there was a virtuous and righteous man named Joseph who, | though he was a member of the council, | went to Pilate and asked for the Body of Jesus. | After he had taken the Body down, | he wrapped it in a linen cloth | and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb | in which no one had yet been buried. | At daybreak on the first day of the week | the women took the spices they had prepared | and went to the tomb. | They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; | but when they entered, | they did not find the Body of the Lord Jesus. | While they were puzzling over this, behold, | two men in dazzling garments appeared to them. | They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. | They said to them, | "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? | He is not here, but he has been raised."

Gospel Reading #10Luke 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, | two of the disciples of Jesus were going | to a village called Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem, | and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. | And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, | Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, | but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. | He asked them, | "What are you discussing as you walk along?" | They stopped, looking downcast. | One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, | "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem | who does not know of the things | that have taken place there in these days?" | And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" | They said to him, | "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, | who was a prophet mighty in deed and word | before God and all the people, | how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over | to a sentence of death and crucified him. | But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; | and besides all this, | it is now the third day since this took place. | Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: | they were at the tomb early in the morning | and did not find his Body; | they came back and reported | that they had indeed seen a vision of angels | who announced that he was alive. | Then some of those with us went to the tomb | and found things just as the women had described, | but him they did not see." | And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! | How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! | Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things | and enter into his glory?" | Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, | Jesus interpreted to them what referred to him | in all the Scriptures. | As they approached the village to which they were going, | Jesus gave the impression that he was going on farther. | But they urged him, "Stay with us, | for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." | So he went in to stay with them. | And it happened that, while he was with them at table, | he took bread, said the blessing, | broke it, and gave it to them. | With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, | but he vanished from their sight. | Then they said to each other, | "Were not our hearts burning within us | while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" | So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem | where they found gathered together | the Eleven and those with them, who were saying, | "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" | Then the two recounted | what had taken place on the way | and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Gospel Reading #11John 5:24-29

Jesus answered the Jews and said to them: | "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever hears my word | and believes in the one who sent me | has eternal life and will not come to condemnation, | but has passed from death to life. | Amen, amen, I say to you, the hour is coming and is now here | when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, | and those who hear will live. | For just as the Father has life in himself, | so also he gave to the Son the possession of life in himself. | And he gave him power to exercise judgment, | because he is the Son of Man. | Do not be amazed at this, | because the hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs | will hear his voice

Gospel Reading #12

John 6:37-40

Jesus said to the crowds: | "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, | and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, | because I came down from heaven not to do my own will | but the will of the one who sent me. | And this is the will of the one who sent me, | that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, | but that I should raise it on the last day. | For this is the will of my Father, | that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him | may have eternal life, | and I shall raise him on the last day."

Gospel Reading #13

WHITE PAGE

Jesus said to the crowds: | "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; | whoever eats this bread will live forever; | and the bread that I will give is my Flesh | for the life of the world." | The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, | "How can this man give us his Flesh to eat?" | Jesus said to them, | "Amen, amen, I say to you, | unless you eat the Flesh of the Son of Man and drink his Blood, | you do not have life within you. | Whoever eats my Flesh and drinks my Blood | has eternal life, | and I will raise him on the last day. | For my Flesh is true food, | and my Blood is true drink. | Whoever eats my Flesh and drinks my Blood | remains in me and I in him. | Just as the living Father sent me | and I have life because of the Father, | so also the one who feeds on me | will have life because of me. | This is the bread that came down from heaven. | Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, | whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Gospel Reading #14

John 11:17-2

When Jesus arrived in Bethany, he found that Lazarus | had already been in the tomb for four days. | Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, only about two miles away. | Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary | to comfort them about their brother. | When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, | she went to meet him; | but Mary sat at home. | Martha said to Jesus, | "Lord, if you had been here, | my brother would not have died. | But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, | God will give you." | Jesus said to her, | "Your brother will rise." | Martha said to him, | "I know he will rise, | in the resurrection on the last day." | Jesus told her, | "I am the resurrection and the life; | whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, | and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. | Do you believe this?" | She said to him, "Yes, Lord. | I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, | the one who is coming into the world."

Gospel Reading #15

John 11:32-45

When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, | she fell at his feet and said to him, | "Lord, if you had been here, | my brother would not have died." | When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, | he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, | "Where have you laid him?" | They said to him, "Sir, come and see." | And Jesus wept. | So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." | But some of them said, | "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man | have done something so that this man would not have died?" | So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. | It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. | Jesus said, "Take away the stone." | Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, | "Lord, by now there will be a stench; | he has been dead for four days." | Jesus said to her, | "Did I not tell you that if you believe | you will see the glory of God?" | So they took away the stone. | And Jesus raised his eyes and said, | "Father, I thank you for hearing me. | I know that you always hear me; | but because of the crowd here I have said this, | that they may believe that you sent me." | And when he had said this, | he cried out in a loud voice, | "Lazarus, come out!" | The dead man came out, | tied hand and foot with burial bands, | and his face was wrapped in a cloth. | So Jesus said to the crowd, | "Untie him and let him go." | Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary | and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

Gospel Reading #16John 12:23-28

Jesus said to his disciples: | "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. | Amen, amen, I say to you, | unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, | it remains just a grain of wheat; | but if it dies, it produces much fruit. | Whoever loves his life will lose it, | and whoever hates his life in this world | will preserve it for eternal life. | Whoever serves me must follow me, | and where I am, there also will my servant be. | The Father will honor whoever serves me. | "I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? | 'Father, save me from this hour'? | But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. | Father, glorify your name." | Then a voice came from heaven, | "I have glorified it and will glorify it again."

Gospel Reading #17John 14:1-6

Jesus said to his disciples: | "Do not let your hearts be troubled. | You have faith in God; have faith also in me. | In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. | If there were not, | would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? | And if I go and prepare a place for you, | I will come back again and take you to myself, | so that where I am you also may be. | Where I am going you know the way." | Thomas said to him, | "Master, we do not know where you are going; | how can we know the way?" | Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. | No one comes to the Father except through me."

Gospel Reading #18John 17:24-26

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said: | "Father, those whom you gave me are your gift to me. | I wish that where I am they also may be with me, | that they may see my glory that you gave me, | because you loved me before the foundation of the world. | Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, | but I know you, and they know that you sent me. | I made known to them your name and I will make it known, | that the love with which you loved me | may be in them and I in them."

Gospel Reading #19John 19:17-18, 25-39

So they took Jesus, and, carrying the cross himself, | he went out to what is called the Place of the Skull, | in Hebrew, Golgotha. | There they crucified him, and with him two others, | one on either side, with Jesus in the middle. | Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother | and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, | and Mary Magdalene. | When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved, | he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." | Then he said to the disciple, | "Behold, your mother." | And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. | After this, aware that everything was now finished, | in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled, | Jesus said, "I thirst." | There was a vessel filled with common wine. | So they put a sponge soaked in wine on a sprig of hyssop | and put it up to his mouth. | When Jesus had taken the wine, he said, | "It is finished." | And bowing his head, he handed over the Spirit. | Now since it was preparation day, | in order that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the sabbath, | for the sabbath day of that week was a solemn one, | the Jews asked Pilate that their legs be broken | and they be taken down. | So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first | and then of the other one who was crucified with Jesus. | But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, | they did not break his legs, | but one soldier thrust his lance into his side, | and immediately Blood and water flowed out. | An eyewitness has testified, and his testimony is true; | he knows that he is speaking the truth, | so that you also may come to believe. | For this happened so that the Scripture passage might be fulfilled: | Not a bone of it will be broken. | And again another passage says: | They will look upon him whom they have pierced. | After this, Joseph of Arimathea, | secretly a disciple of Jesus for fear of the Jews, | asked Pilate if he could remove the Body of Jesus. | And Pilate permitted it. | So he came and took his

Body. | Nicodemus, the one who had first come to him at night, | also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloe | weighing about one hundred pounds.

Romans 6:3-4, 8-9

Brothers and sisters: | Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus | were baptized into his death? | We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, | so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead | by the glory of the Father, | we too might live in newness of life. | If, then, we have died with Christ, | we believe that we shall also live with him. | We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; | death no longer has power over him.

Romans 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters: | No one lives for oneself, | and no one dies for oneself. | For if we live, we live for the Lord, | and if we die, we die for the Lord; | so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s. | For this is why Christ died and came to life, | that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Second Reading for Baptized Children #31 Corinthians 15:20-23

Brothers and sisters: | Christ has been raised from the dead, | the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. | For since death came through a man, | the resurrection of the dead came also through man. | For just as in Adam all die, | so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, | but each one in proper order: | Christ the firstfruits; | then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ.

The favors of the LORD are not exhausted, | his mercies are not spent; | They are renewed each morning, | so great is his faithfulness. | My portion is the LORD, says my soul; | therefore will I hope in him. | Good is the LORD to one who waits for him, | to the soul that seeks him; | It is good to hope in silence | for the saving help of the LORD.

Gospel Reading for Unbaptized Children #1Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus answered: | "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, | for although you have hidden these things | from the wise and the learned | you have revealed them to the childlike. | Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. | All things have been handed over to me by my Father. | No one knows the Son except the Father, | and no one knows the Father except the Son | and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him." | "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, | and I will give you rest. | Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, | for I am meek and humble of heart; | and you will find rest for yourselves. | For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

Gospel Reading for Unbaptized Children #2Mark 15:33-46

At noon darkness came over the whole land | until three in the afternoon. | And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, | "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" | which is translated, | "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" | Some of the bystanders who heard it said, | "Look, he is calling Elijah." | One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed, | and gave it to him to drink, saying, | "Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down." | Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. | The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. | When the centurion who stood facing him | how he breathed his last he said, | "Truly this man was the Son of God!" | There were also women looking on from a distance. | Among them were Mary Magdalene, | Mary the mother of the younger James, and of Joses, and Salome. | These women had followed him when he was in Galilee | and ministered to him. | There were also many other women | who had come up with him to Jerusalem. | When it was already evening, | since it was the day of preparation, | the day before the sabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, | a distinguished member of the council, | who was himself awaiting the Kingdom of God, | came and courageously went to Pilate | asked for the Body of Jesus. | Pilate was amazed that he was already dead. | He summoned the centurion | and asked him if Jesus had already died. | And when he learned of it from the centurion, | he gave the Body to Joseph. | Having bought a linen cloth, he took him down, | wrapped him in the linen cloth, | and laid him in a tomb that had been hewn out of the rock. | Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.

Gospel Reading for Unbaptized Children #3John 19:25-30

Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother | and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, | and Mary Magdalene. | When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved, | he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." | Then he said to the disciple, | "Behold, your mother." | And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. | After this, aware that everything was now finished, | in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled, | Jesus said, "I thirst." | There was a vessel filled with common wine. | So they put a sponge soaked in wine on a sprig of hyssop | and put it up to his mouth. | When Jesus had taken the wine, he said, | "It is finished." | And bowing his head, he handed over the spirit.
