DELIGHTING IN GOD'S LAW

By Tom Moore

"But his delight is in the law of Jehovah; And on his law doth he meditate day and night" (Psa. 1:2).

For those who diligently seek God, there is no greater delight than learning God's will, doing it, and reflecting on it in their minds. Along this path lies the good life. Joshua was reminded of this in God's charge to him: "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate thereon day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success" (Joshua 1:8). Because God is good, any word that He has spoken is good. To love Him, revere Him, and respect Him is to rejoice whenever He speaks. "The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart...more to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the dropings of the honeycomb" (Psa. 19:8, 10).

In Psalm 1, the person who is said to be blessed is one who "meditates" in God's law. Meditation requires more than a hurried glance at the Scriptures once in a while. It first involves concentrated study and then serious contemplation of what has been learned. When we meditate on God's law, we admire its beauty and ponder its application in our lives. We think on it and mull it over, indulging ourselves in the real enjoyment of thinking about God. The godly person doesn't just do this on rare occasions. He does it "day and night."

We must learn to appreciate God's word as our rule of life - our law. The word "law" for many has such a negative connotation that it's hard for them to have such an appreciation. Many would rather just think of the Scriptures as "inspirational" literature - there for them to consult if they ever need a lift. But the very lift we need is to delight and meditate in the law of the Jehovah. God has revealed His will not just to inspire us, but to govern us — we need to meditate on it day and night. I can't help thinking of the words of our Lord, "If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments" (Jn. 14:15).

Delighting in God's law is simply a part of our delight in God Himself. In another of the Psalms, David said, "I delight to do thy will, O my God; Yea, thy law is within my heart" (Psa. 40:8). The more we discover what God is really like, the more joy it will bring us to turn His precepts over and over in our minds and bask in the sheer goodness of such a great God.

If you are in need of any pantry goods, need help picking up medicine or need something from the store, call the office 386-3953 and we will be glad to help you out!
