COME TO HIS TABERNACLE

By Tom Moore

"Oh send out thy light and thy truth; let them lead me: Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, And to thy tabernacles. Then will I go unto the altar of God, Unto God my exceeding joy..." (Psa. 43:3-4)

God is a God of "light" and "truth." Anyone who has a desire for these will be drawn to Him, and the more powerfully we love God's "light" and "truth," the more He will mean to us. If we wish to be strongly motivated in our devotion to God, then we must intensify our love for His "light" and "truth." There is no use trying to keep on serving God if the virtues that characterize God are not things that appeal to us.

Psychologists tell us that many are "loss averse," meaning many feel more pain from their losses than they do pleasure from their gains. Thus, the fear of negative consequences is, for many people, a more powerful motivator than the desire for positive consequences. When it comes to our spiritual motivation, many don't want to go to hell - more than we do want to go to heaven.

Perhaps this is true. I remember the World Series a few years ago. After the final out in the hard-fought final game, the television camera showed the heartbroken scene in the losing dugout: some players had their faces buried in their hands, others had tears streaming down their cheeks. ⇨⇨⇨

The announcer let the scene speak for itself for a moment and then, himself a former major league player, he said, "Losing hurts more than winning feels good."

Beloved, it need not be this way. We need not spend our lives simply moving away from things. There are wondrously great things to move toward, and we need only cultivate our taste for them to be powerfully drawn by their attraction. In a sense, this is the very challenge of the Christian life, to learn a new, deeper set of loves. In another sense, however, these loves don't need to be learned. They're already there as a result of our creation in God's image. We just need to be more honest and openly acknowledge the things that move us most deeply. The darkness is to be avoided - but even more than that, "light" and "truth" is to be loved. Remember, Jehovah is to be worshiped "in the beauty of holiness" (Psa. 29:2; KJV).

One author said, "The human soul hungers for beauty - to experience beauty, and to create beauty - just as powerfully as our bodies hunger for food. Our souls wither when they are beauty-deprived."
