SEPARATED AND SATURATED

By Tom Moore

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; But his delight is in the law of the Lord, And in His law he meditates day and night" (Psa. 1:1-2).

Two of the most popular words in the Christian vocabulary are bless and blessing. God wants to bless His people. He wants them to be recipients and channels of blessing. God blesses us to make us a blessing to others, but He has given us certain conditions for receiving blessings.

First, we must be SEPARATED from the world – "Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful" (v. 1). The world is anything that separates us from God or causes us to disobey Him. Separation is not isolation but contact without contamination. Sin is usually a gradual process. Notice the gradual decline of the sinner in verse 1. He is walking, standing, and then sitting. Becoming worldly is progressive - it happens by degrees. People make friends with the world - become spotted by the world – begin to love the world, become confirmed to it, and end up condemned with it. Lot is an example of someone who became worldly. He looked toward Sodom, pitched his tent toward Sodom, lived there, lost everything and ended in sin. This is why we are warned, "Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers.

For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? ...
Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you" (2 Cor. 6:14, 17; ESV).

Second, we must be SATURATED with the Word –
"But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night" (v. 2). Whatever delights us directs us. We saturate ourselves with the Word by meditating on it. Meditation is to the spirit what digestion is to the body. When we meditate on the Word of God, we are "digesting" the Word of God. So not only do we delight in the Word, it becomes a source of spiritual nourishment for us. This is why studying the Scriptures is so vital to our spiritual welfare. The apostle Paul declared, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of "truth" (2 Tim. 2:15; KJV), and he further states, "Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine" (1 Tim. 4:13).

Friends, enjoy the blessings God has for you and allow Him through His Word to make you a blessing to others. God desires to bless us, but we must meet His conditions for receiving blessings. By staying SEPA-RATED from the world and keeping SATURATED in the Word, we may expect God's blessings. Resolve to meditate on the Word of God and obey it. He will make you a blessing to others.

Betty Leach has had pneumonia, she is better but Jan. 2nd she fell and has bruised her hip, side, and leg making it hard for her to move around. She would like calls and cards.
