9. I can't think of any good reason that I could give God as to why I shouldn't attend.

10. I can't think of a single activity whereby I can be strengthened by God's Spirit in my inner man than through Bible study and personal devotion.

11. Like most folks, I can always use a "shot in the arm" to strengthen, exhort and invigorate me to finish my week strong so I am ready to assemble again on Sunday.

12. I believe in the presence of God in our assemblies; therefore I want to be where God is!

"Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works; not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh. For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which shall devour the adversaries" (Hebrews 10:24-27).

"If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments"
(John 14:15)

WORDS THAT HURT

There are many warnings in the Bible about the consequences of our words. The most powerful is expressed by Jesus. He said, "But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken." (Matthew 12:16)

Please don't let your words hurt someone this week. Think about the consequences.
