CONSIDERING THE LATTER END

By Tom Moore

Many of the things done in the world, and yet, shouldn't have been, are done because people will not take time to stop and think. Moses, in the words of a song, expresses this same thought, "Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this, That they would CONSIDER THEIR LATTER END!" (Dt. 32:29 [emphasis mine - TM]). If we could get the world to seriously think about the end result of their actions, I believe they would be a lot less likely to do some of the things they do. And too, we need to stress to the world that they ponder seriously the end result of not doing some things they ought to do. We must consider the latter end!

Moses pleaded with Israel to consider their later end. He said, "For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands" (Dt. 31:29). If only Israel would have considered seriously the end result of idolatry, they would have saved themselves a great deal of misery.

Today, in like manner, God has given us numerous warnings to "consider the latter end." Did not Solomon say we should consider the latter end when he wrote, "There is a way that seems right to a man, But its end is the way of death" (Pro. 14:12)? Jeremiah, knowing the latter end of following man's way, declared, "O LORD, I know the way of man is not in himself; It is not in man who walks to direct his own steps" (Jer. 10:23). Why shouldn't man direct his own steps? Because of the end result - the latter end. The way of man leads to death, an undesirable result. ⇔⇔

So the next time we are tempted to do something our way, as opposed to God's way, may we ponder the end result of following such a course.

Those in the world who have not obeyed the gospel have avoided considering seriously the latter end of such a lack of action. Paul informs us in very clear and simple language as to what the latter end will be for those who refuse to obey the gospel. The inspired apostle proclaims, "and to give you who are troubled rest with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power" (2 The. 1:7-9). If more people would contemplate the end result of disobedience, I truly believe a greater amount of lost souls would be converted to Christ.

If the denominational world would realize the end result of their false religion, there would be a greater number leaving denominationalism and coming to the one true church, the church of Christ. Jesus said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted" (Mt. 15:13). No one who openmindedly and seriously considers the end result of denominationism would want to be a part of that which would cause them to be rooted up and cast into the fires of hell on the judgment day. O, that we could get the denominational world to consider the latter end!

It is also very important for Christians to ponder seriously the end result of unfaithfulness. Jesus said that we must remain faithful even to the point of death (Rev. 2:10). The end result of the unfaithful Christian will be more severe than for those outside of Christ. Peter declared, "For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: 'A DOG RETURNS TO HIS OWN VOMIT,' and, 'a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire'" (2 Pt. 2:21-22). A very healthy and soul-saving habit for all of us to practice DAILY in our lives is CONSIDERING THE LATTER END!
