Paul is the longest serving and winningest Flames Head Coach of all time, having ended last season, his 25th with the club as player and coach, with 614 wins. He will, this season, take his games coached total over the 1000 mark.

Paul arrived as a player for the 1999-2000 campaign and was on hand for the club's 2nd treble when they took the British National League, Cup and Playoff titles in his 2nd term. He became Captain in 2001-2002 and remained so through the 2006-2007 season before becoming player and Head Coach in 2007-2008 while continuing playing duty through the 2015-2016 schedule. In his first season with the dual role, the club secured the English Premier League title. They went on to collect the 2009-2010 Premier Cup, the 2011 Playoff crown, Back-to-Back League and Cup captures between 2011 and 2013, the 2015-2016 "Double" with the Cup and Playoff titles ahead of the 2018-2019 Elite League Patton Conference crown.

Paul is the all-time club leader in games played with 928 and he is 4th on the club's historical scoring charts with 113 goals, 500 assists, 613 points and is one of only 3 players to reach the 500 assist mark.

Including stints at Humberside, Sheffield, Durham and Newcastle ahead of his Flames transfer, Paul played in nearly 1200 professional games and had a 10 year run with the Great Britain National team where he represented country colours 54 times in World Championship play.

Just before the game on December 7th, the Flames will retire Paul's #22 Jersey.
