Coach's Comments

“ Last weekend was tough sledding coming out with 0 points on the board. It was particularly unfortunate on Sunday to have lost to Sheffield where I thought we gave them a real game and we looked like we might be on a path to winning that one, but it obviously didn't happen. They are clearly the best team in the league. It would have been nice to have turned them over, especially since we have to meet them in the Cup Final. Hopefully with so much on the line in that game to come there will be a break of some kind that lets us put the win on our side of the ledger. On Saturday at Coventry, outside of a pretty good opening period, we were probably deserving of the loss. Blaze are a stubborn team from a work ethic and perseverance perspective, and they simply worked their way to a win and we probably didn't do enough in reply over the last 40 minutes or so to match their desire. Same outcome both games but different feelings of where we were so hopefully what we did on Sunday is something we can demonstrate in the games ahead that will on more occasions than not turn into wins and points. This is written ahead of last night in Glasgow and with a little luck maybe we are reflecting now on some success there. Either way, we have a fresh start this weekend at Manchester before returning home Sunday against Cardiff Devils. Enjoy the games. ”
