Coach's Comments

“ It's another big weekend ahead with a return visit to Cardiff Saturday before our Pride night when Belfast Giants drop in here Sunday. Last Sunday's exciting finish against Cardiff Devils was slightly disappointing to only get a single point, but we might call it a 'successful failure' after spending overnight and well into afternoon Sunday on the bus after getting stuck behind an accident that stopped us for a significant period of time. We went from wondering if we would be back in time to play the game to getting a point and playing well enough to win. It's not something that happens very often to that extensive degree so overall it was a decent outcome and maybe more importantly a reflection on the character and desire of every guy in our room to be able to shake off far less than ideal game day preparations and still turn up to compete. When guys give all they have, you can't be critical no matter the outcome. Hopefully we can use what will be more normal preparations to be able to deliver success in Cardiff and at home to Belfast. ”
