“ We are coming into another weekend of action. Last Saturday and Sunday we had the challenge of a long journey to Dundee before returning home and this weekend is similar with the flight to Belfast before scrambling home Saturday to be ready for a visit by Glasgow later that night. We are excited to be entering the action on the back of a couple more wins thanks to a great showing in Dundee followed by a resilient outing against Manchester where we didn't have a terrific 2nd period but still found the handle on some goals to put ourselves in line for a win. We are happy with the recent run of results which has included some great netminding by both Eamon and Jake. It's a good time to have confidence because Belfast is a very talented team, and their building is one of the hardest visits in which to retrieve points. Then back here against Clan who have not had the start they wanted, but there is no shortage of ability on their roster either as we know from seeing them once already. It is 4 more points we want to make the most of. Hopefully we can find our way through, and we hope you find a way to be part of all the action ahead. ”
