Coach's Comments

“ It's nice to be writing these again after a win rather than the last several we have had to look at our defeats. It's hard to even explain what a relief it is, when you have had a stretch where things were so difficult, to finally put one back in the win column. Athletes want to win even more than supporters and when that is not happening, day to day at the rink is not a lot of fun so even one win like this, even though it is just one win, can mean a great deal, and Sunday's success over Coventry definitely fit that bill. However, it is just one win, and it doesn't change what is ahead and we immediately have to put our eyes on Cardiff as we continue the Cup schedule. One of our main early season struggles was our ability to put in a full 60 minutes and we were able to do that on Sunday. Somehow, we need to find a way to do that in the games ahead, hopefully starting Wednesday night. In any event, I know the guys will put in the best effort they can and try to turn out a win. Thank for staying with us, and we hope you enjoy the half term clash with Cardiff. ”
