Coach's Comments

“ We get back to league action on home ice Saturday when Belfast Giants attend Spectrum. Based on what they have done so far, along with years of history, we can expect nothing less than one of the league’s highest quality opponents and hopefully we are prepared for what they are going to deliver. We split last weekend with a win at Fife and a loss at home to Sheffield, but even with the loss we felt pretty good about the games we played. Against Sheffield we had as much of the play as our opponents did and we created enough scoring opportunities to do much better than one goal. It didn’t go our way, but it was a weekend of things to build on in terms of our belief in our group. Belfast is another tough test that we will need to figure out and we are looking forward to seeing how we get on. Thanks for checking in with us and we hope you enjoy the weekend of hockey ahead. ”
