Coach's Comments

“ Our home stand continues

Wednesday night when Manchester Storm drop in for a 7:30pm start.

Looking back at last weekend we came away relatively happy with what we achieved collecting a couple of points in the Cup and at least taking a league point in the penalty loss to Nottingham. Having said that, it was pretty frustrating not to take both points based on what we felt was enough pressure and territorial play to secure a win. That's going to happen from time to time over a schedule as busy as ours, so we have to take the positives and move on to our next test which of course is Storm. They have had a terrific start to their league campaign with 5 points from their first 3 games and not yet having suffered a regulation defeat. They will be wanting to continue that trend against us, and it is up to us to make sure that doesn't happen. We are aware of the importance of being mentally up for it, and we are looking forward to getting right back at it to see if we can turn in a win.”
