“ It was a tough weekend against Manchester, and we were very happy to have been able to pull out a last second win on Sunday after our struggles Saturday. Manchester’s ice size is the biggest difference any player has to adjust to in this league from rink to rink, and we clearly did not take well to that. Hopefully it is a learning lesson because we have to be able to win there. This early in the season after what they did to us in the Cup opener, it would have been pretty easy to pack it in Sunday after we got behind. We didn’t do that, and guys deserve a lot of credit for keeping at it and believing we could still win. That is an important feature of a good hockey team, and whilst it would be nice to have scored early and often then just cruised to a win, it was very encouraging to see how we performed in that situation. It won’t be the last time we are there, and it is good for each guy to know that we can climb back into games. With that behind us, it is not getting any easier now with a visit to Nottingham to open the weekend then back here Sunday for our first visit by Cardiff Devils. Both teams have loaded themselves up with talent this off season and if we are going to get any points, we are going to have to earn it. Hopefully we can lead from the front for the coming weekend, but whatever happens, we hope you enjoy the set of games. ”
