COMPETITIONS

ELITE LEAGUE

The 2023/24 Elite League Regular Season Championship is a straight 10-team league with each team facing each other six times – three home and three away for a total of 54 Regular Season games.

The League Champion is the team with the highest number of points over the 60-game regular season.

CHALLENGE CUP

Challenge Cup has Ten teams split into three groups. All teams play each other on a two home, two away basis except in Group A which is one home, one away. Group Stage games must produce a winner.

- Group A Belfast Giants, Dundee Stars, Fife Flyers, Glasgow Clan
- Group B Cardiff Devils, Coventry Blaze, Guildford Flames
- Group C Manchester Storm, Nottingham Panthers, Sheffield Steelers

*Top team in each group advances to Quarter-Finals and the remaining 5 qualifying teams are ranked 4 – 8 to create the quarter final match ups.

All games in the Quarter- and Semi-Finals are aggregate-scoring, home and away series. In both stages, the option of home-ice advantage for the return leg will be given to the higher-seeded team.

In the Semi-Finals, the highest remaining seed plays the lowest remaining seed for the first pairing; and the two remaining teams play in the second pairing.

The Final will be held in March 2023. The highest seed has the option of home-ice advantage.

PLAYOFFS

The teams placed 1-8 at the end of the Regular Season Championship take part in the Quarter-Finals of the Playoffs in a two-legged aggregate score series of games with the overall winner of each series progressing to the Playoff Finals weekend in Nottingham, April 20th and 21st, 2024.

Coach's Comments

“ Unlike last weekend where the games had no meaning in the standings, we finally enter into the proper schedule with Saturday’s visit to Cardiff Devils to kick off the Cup competition before coming home Sunday night to entertain Sheffield Steelers in League action. We are definitely starting off against a couple of powerhouse teams, and hopefully we have done enough early on to be ready for the level of competition that lies ahead. For our first games as a group last weekend, I thought we performed well overall. I have said before that nobody will be playing their best hockey of the season in September, but the key is to at least exceed where another team is at to this point in the season to hopefully get a jump on the Cup and League tables. Regardless of results, however, it is still very early and a work in progress, so all we can ask is that guys pay attention to all the little details and be ready to do everything they can to help get us into the win column. These are sure to be a couple of exciting games, so hopefully you can get behind us and help push us on to success. Enjoy the weekend.”
