

Father Arnold's column will return next weekend. He is currently on retreat.

Annual Memorial Mass—We will host our annual Memorial Mass in memory of our fellow parishioners, and the immediate family of parishioners who have gone to their eternal rest during this past year. The parish community would like to invite you and your family to participate in this Mass on Saturday, November 2nd, at 4:30pm at OLPH. We will invite you to light a candle in his/her memory and offer prayers for all the deceased and for you, as well. Please let us know if you will be able to attend by calling our parish office at 410-747-4334 by Monday, October 28th.

FORMING INTENTIONAL DISCIPLES CONFERENCE WITH SHERRY WEDDELL

November 11 & 12, 9am-4pm. Registration is now open!

Register today on our parish website! olphparish.org/goodnews

We encourage early registration—space is limited.

We are excited to be hosting a two-day workshop based on Sherry's best-selling book, "Forming Intentional Disciples", which has quickly become the standard for inspiring parishes, laity and clergy to understand the New Evangelization and why it must be the future of our parishes.

CORNERSTONE MEN'S RETREAT

November 8 & 9 in Catonsville. The retreat begins at 6pm on Friday, and ends with Saturday evening mass. The weekend consists of ordinary men sharing stories and experiences of trying to live the Gospel amidst the challenges of the modern world. Cost is $95. Please make checks payable to "OLPH", with "Cornerstone Retreat" in the memo area. For more information, please contact Michael O'Connor at 410-796-6771, moconnor6771@comcast.net, or visit olphcornerstone.wordpress.com. To register online, see the parish website for a link to the registration site.

OLPH BOOK CLUB—NEXT BOOK SELECTION

Rebuilt, the Story of a Catholic parish: Awakening the Faithful, Reaching the Lost, Making Church Matter .

This is the story of the Church of the Nativity in Timonium, Md. As told by Father Michael White and Tom Corcoran. These two men join together to tell us what their church was like when they got there and why they felt they needed drastic changes, their vision for their Church, and how they got to the point where they are today. They see themselves as a Church who reaches out especially to Catholics who have become disconnected to the Church. You are invited to join us in the discussion of Rebuilt which will take place at the Schuberth's home, 4721 Knapp Court, Ellicott City at 7pm on October 18th. For more information, email Jennifer Schuberth at praiseGod8@gmail.com. Copies of Rebuilt may be available on the OLPH Church book rack. We hope you will join us!

MARRIAGE, DIVORCE, AND ANNULMENTS FROM A CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVE

The Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Baltimore will be giving a presentation in our area concerning divorce and annulment from the Catholic perspective. This presentation will be helpful for divorced Catholics, those divorced who wish to marry Catholics, those parish leaders involved in the RCIA process and any others who may have a vested interest because of family or friends. This session will be held on Monday, November 4th at 7pm in the OLPH Parish Center Triple Rooms. No registration is required. For more information, please call 410-547-5533.

OLPH ANGEL SPORTS BASKETBALL

OLPH Angel Sports Basketball is seeking boys and girls in grades 2-8 who are interested in playing basketball this year. You don't have to go to OLPH School to play on one of the teams. The teams are open to ALL parish children in grades 2-8. If you are interested in playing or would like more information, please call Conrad Katulski at 301-785-4436 or email conkat@verizon.net.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL BUNDLE SUNDAY

will be the weekend of November 2-3. We accept all books (esp. large print), Medical supplies (wheelchairs, walkers, canes...etc.), small appliances and clothing of all types (especially larger sizes, and coats.). Thank you for your generosity.

CATHOLIC WAR VETERANS POST 1961 FELLOWSHIP BREAKFAST

There is a temporary location change for the CWV Post 1961 Fellowship Breakfast on Wednesday, October 16th. It will be held at 8:00 a.m. at the Bob Evan Restaurant located in the Food Plaza area near Rts 175 & 108 in Ellicott City. Any Catholic veteran or active duty military interested in learning about the CWV are invited to attend. This would be a great time to learn more about the post and its activities.

Please include these people and their families in your prayers that they may experience Christ's comfort and healing.

RECONCILIATION PARENT MEETING: Parents of children eligible to receive their First Reconciliation are invited to a meeting on Tuesday, October 15, at 7:00pm in the church. Flyers have been sent home to parents of OLPH School children and children in our Religious Education program. If your child is a student at another Catholic or private school and you are a registered parishioner at OLPH, you are welcome to attend. Children are eligible to receive sacraments if they have regularly attended religious formation at another Catholic School or Religious Education program last year. Please plan to arrive at this meeting by 6:45pm so you can register and pick up necessary materials for instruction at home. Questions? Contact Judy Gruel, jgruel@archbalt.org, 410-747-0131.

I BELIEVE IN...

*...one Lord Jesus Christ. At the heart of all our teachings, we find a person: Jesus of Nazareth. To teach Christ means putting ourselves and others in communion with him. In knowing Jesus, we understand his actions, his words, and his miracles. Our desire to proclaim Jesus comes from our friendship with him, leading ourselves and others into having a deeper faith with him. In knowing Jesus, we get to know God, his Father—and ours, too.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR CATHOLIC SAINTS: ST. MARGARET MARY ALAÇOQUE (1647-1690) (FEAST: OCTOBER 16)

A self-effacing nun in the Visitation Convent at Paray-le-Monial, France, was inspired by the Lord Jesus to establish the devotion of the Holy Hour. Her name was St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, and from the age of seven, when she received her first Holy Communion, she had always manifested an intense love of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Our Lord appeared to her often, usually as the Crucified Christ. Her simplicity caused her to feel that these apparitions were also granted to others who had recourse to Jesus in the sacrament of His love. Once the Master appeared to the young girl as she was returning from a dance and reproached her for not espousing Him. When twenty-four years of age, Margaret entered the cloister, choosing the most menial tasks. Gifted with intelligence and common sense, she made great progress in holiness. Our Lord entrusted to her the mission of establishing the reign of the Sacred Heart among the children of men. Criticism did not hamper her zeal, and her charity toward her opponents won them over to the cause of the Master. In the first revelation of the Sacred Heart to the nun, Our Lord made known His burning desire to be loved by all men, and His design of manifesting to them His Sacred Heart with its treasures of mercy. Margaret Mary communicated

Our Lord's wish that the faithful receive Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month and observe the Feast of the Sacred Heart on the Friday after the octave of Corpus Christi. After nineteen years in the convent, St. Margaret Mary died October 17, 1690. Many pilgrims to her tomb have sought and obtained favors. Through her apostolate of devotion to the Sacred Heart many sinners have repented and found grace with God. Patron: against polio; devotees of the Sacred Heart; loss of parents; polio patients. See more at: <http://www.catholicculture.org/culture/liturgicalyear/calendar/day.cfm?date=2013-10-16#sthash.8kfWzO3W.dpuf>
