

MOST Ministries Prayer Calendar – December, 2018 (Part 1)

Day	Prayer
Saturday, Dec. 1	The MOST Ministry staff finished their strategic planning for the coming year recently. Pray for God's blessing on the ministry and guidance in the coming year.
Sunday, Dec. 2	Pray for the first two teams, Guatemala and Tanzania, that are serving in the new year. Pray that that the team members hearts are ready to serve; furthermore, that those they will serve are prepared to hear the Gospel message.
Monday, Dec. 3	Pray for the team leaders, Cindy Pine and Steve Hayes, as they prepare to lead the above teams. Leading teams takes patience and strength, but they have both done awesome things on their previous teams. We are thankful for them and their willingness to lead 1901 and 1904.
Tuesday, Dec. 4	Team 1904 is meeting to discuss their upcoming trip to teach women in Tanzania how to sew. Pray that the meeting is fruitful and that they feel prepared to serve.
Wednesday, Dec. 5	Pray for the volunteers who will be serving in the MOST Ministries office today. Pray for safe travels as the winter weather is upon us and it is becoming a challenging commute.
Thursday, Dec. 6	Today is Ruth Martin's, MOST Ministries' Executive Director, birthday! Since coming on this summer, there have been changes in the ministry and it's been a challenging season. We are thankful that she accepted this position and is working on moving the ministry forward.
Friday, Dec. 7	Pray for the prospering relationship between LCMS Latin America director, Ted Krey, and MOST Ministries. There is a discussion of how MOST Ministries can work alongside the synod missionaries in Latin America.
Saturday, Dec. 8	We have a new staff member, Tyler Seehafer. The first week in the office, his wife gave birth to their son. Pray for Tyler as he begins this new role at MOST Ministries, but also for the family as they welcome a new addition. It's an exciting time for them!
Sunday, Dec. 9	Pray for the new team leader applicants. Pray that the team leader retreat will ignite their passion for missions, the communications will be clear, and they develop into excellent servant leaders. It can be challenging, but also pray for their strength.

MOST Ministries Prayer Calendar – December, 2018 (Part 1)

Monday, Dec. 10	Sadly, the volcano in Guatemala that erupted in June erupted again last week. Pray for the safety of all the people who most likely suffered from the previous eruption. Team 1812 witnessed the recovery process and it is an extremely challenging time. Pray for their strength throughout the recovery and thanksgiving no one died.
Tuesday, Dec. 11	Today is Barbara Hoffmeier's birthday! She has been a dedicated team leader and volunteer for many years. We are thankful that she is willing to serve in various ways and continues to support MOST Ministries.
Wednesday, Dec. 12	Yesterday and today we are celebrating our amazing volunteers. This is a special time to thank them for their dedication and generosity throughout the year. We would struggle to send teams if they did not step forward and serve! Thank you for everything you do for MOST Ministries.
Thursday, Dec. 13	Pray for the unrest that has occurred in Haiti recently. Haiti has had trouble in previous years, but pray for the leaders of the country as they guide the Haitians.
Friday, Dec. 14	Pray for Muzi Khumalo as he continues to build the permanent eyeglass clinic in South Africa. Pray for his continued enthusiasm in the project, for the connections being made with local churches and service groups, and for monetary assistance from grants, individuals, and the South African government.
Saturday, Dec. 15	Pray for Muzi's organization, Caring Friends. Those involved with building the ministry have worked hard, but pray for their continued enthusiasm. They are a blessing to those in the communities they serve in South Africa.
