RE: To Protect 2022 Elections, Prosecute Criminal Complaint to Remove Corrupt Officials from Office
– My Household Pays $6,800 Annually to Local, State, & Fed. Gov'ts

Dear Sheriff Quire,

This matter regards my December 29, 2021 Criminal Complaint filed in your office re: election fraud, conspiracy, and other wrongdoings committed by Secretary of State Michael Adams and other officials. For protecting the 2022 election cycle, please prosecute said Complaint that includes the arrest and removing these offenders from office. For, Sheriff Quire, these officials are not above the law. They are conspiring to commit the same election fraud in the 2022 elections, this time with intent to disenfranchise even more voters.

I have provided you with the material evidence for removing these people. Including Judge Phillip Shepherd of the Franklin County Circuit Court (Frankfort, KY) and Chief Judge Denise Clayton of the KY Court of Appeals. These judges refuse to correct the fraud by ignoring my “perfected claims” under the 7th Amendment.

Sheriff Quire, you are not allowed to ignore my rights, as my household pays over $6,800 annually in taxes and fees. And wherefore, you must uphold your legal duty by ending this dehumanizing environment of ignoring the rights of taxpayers by leaving their injuries unresolved. By the taxes we pay, we are not the so-called “average Americans,” but we [each] are the PURPOSE and CAUSE of your function as Sheriff.

And whereby, for protecting the 2022 voting cycle, I implore you to do your duty and to properly notify me of your progress and updates of the Criminal Complaint.

My very best regards,

Daniel Cobble 3-24-2022

Daniel Cobble, Complainant
